BUDAPEST

- Fishermen's Bastion - Fisherman's Bastion in Budapest was built in the 19th century. The Bastion takes its name from the guild of fishermen that was responsible for defending this stretch of the city walls in the middle Ages. The views from the Fisherman's Bastion well deserve their own special tower atop the Buda Castle Hill, as not only the Buda Castle but also the river views and the Danube riverfront sights are now part of the UNESCO World Heritage.
- Matthias Church - Matthias Church is a Roman Catholic Church located in Budapest in front of the Fisherman's Bastion at the heart of Buda's Castle District. The current building was constructed in the florid late Gothic style. The building's exterior bright color and the interior of the church's stained glass windows and ceiling paintings, it is not to be missed highlights. It was the second largest church of medieval Buda and the seventh largest church of medieval Hungarian Kingdom.
- Heroes' Square - Heroes' Square is one of the major squares in Budapest, Hungary, noted for its iconic statue complex featuring the Seven Chieftains of the Magyars and other important national leaders, as well as the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. It is one of the most magnificent buildings in Budapest, which combines history, art and politics, such as multiple elements.
- Buda Castle - Buda Castle is the historical castle and palace complex of the Hungarian kings in Budapest. In the past, it has been called Royal Palace and Royal Castle. The castle is a part of the Budapest World Heritage Site, which was declared a Heritage Site in 1987.

BRATISLAVA

- Bratislava Castle - Bratislava Castle, German is the main castle of Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia. The massive rectangular building with four corner towers stands on an isolated rocky hill of the Little Carpathians directly above the Danube River in the middle of Bratislava. The location provides excellent views of Bratislava, Austria and many legends are connected with the history of the castle.

BRNO

- Freedom Square - The biggest and probably the oldest square in Brno, surrounded by many shops, cafes and restaurants, there are many shops selling souvenirs and clothing is the main downtown area. Formerly called Lower Market, has still kept its original triangular shape, determined by the former routes and a creek.
- Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul - St. Peter and Paul Cathedral is one of the most important showplace in Czech Republic, it was built in the 9th century. Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul is also pictured on Czech 10 Koruna coin. Towers of Petrov are 84 metre high. The interior is in baroque movement. The exterior is Gothic. Above the main entrance there is written a quotation from Matous evangelium. It says something like: "Come here everybody who is toiling, I will refresh you. Your soul will find peace."

PRAGUE

- Prague Castle - Prague Castle is the official residence and office of the President of the Czech Republic; it was built in the 9th century. In each castle building, architectural style Romanesque, Gothic, Baroque, Renaissance and other years can be described as priceless treasures of Prague. The Guinness Book of Records lists Prague Castle as the largest ancient castle in the world.
- Charles Bridge - The Charles Bridge is a famous historic bridge that crosses the Vltava River in Prague, Czech Republic. The Charles Bridge was the most important connection between Prague Castle and the city's Old Town and adjacent areas. This "solid-land" connection made Prague important as a trade route between Eastern and Western Europe.
- Malá Strana - Malá Strana is a district of the city of Prague, Czech Republic. It was a dominant center of the ethnic German citizens of Prague. It also housed a large number of noble palaces while the right-bank towns were comparatively more bourgeois and more Bohemian Czech.
- Wenceslar Square - Wenceslas Square is one of the main city squares and the centre of the business and cultural communities in the New Town of Prague. It is part of the historic centre of Prague, a World Heritage Site. Formerly known as Horse Market, it was renamed Wenceslas square in 1848.
- Astronomical Clock - The Prague astronomical clock, or Prague orloj, is a medieval astronomical clock located in Prague, the capital of the Czech Republic. The clock was first installed in 1410, making it the third-oldest astronomical clock in the world and the oldest one still working.
